

LABADIA

Chill Rose Toscana Rosato

I.g.t. 2024

From an Ancient Tradition to New Possibilities. Exploring the potential of Tuscan red grapes, this rosé wine is born with a soft, enveloping taste, fruity notes, and distinctive characteristics that make Chill Rose a versatile wine—perfect as an aperitif or enjoyed throughout a meal.

Geographical area: Tuscany

Grapes: Tuscan red varieties

Production: 6,500 bottles

Alcohol content (%): 12.5

2024 Vintage: The excellent seasonal conditions led to an increase in wine production, while grape quality also proved to be outstanding. As a result, this vintage offers wines with remarkable aromatic profiles.

Tasting Notes: A bright and luminous antique pink with delicate coppery reflections, this is a young and elegant wine, offering an immediate sensory appeal and pronounced freshness.

On the nose, it reveals wild strawberry aromas, hints of pomegranate, and delicate floral notes. The palate is light, refreshing, and refined.

Food Pairings: Perfect as an aperitif, it pairs beautifully with starters, delicate first courses, fish, and vegetables. An ideal match for Mediterranean cuisine.

Serving Temperature: 10-12°C (50-54°F)

