

Badia
Coltibuono

UNIQUE MOMENTS

Badia a Coltibuono boasts a millennia-old history.

The foundation of the abbey dates back to 1051, when it was established by the Benedictine monks of Vallombrosa.

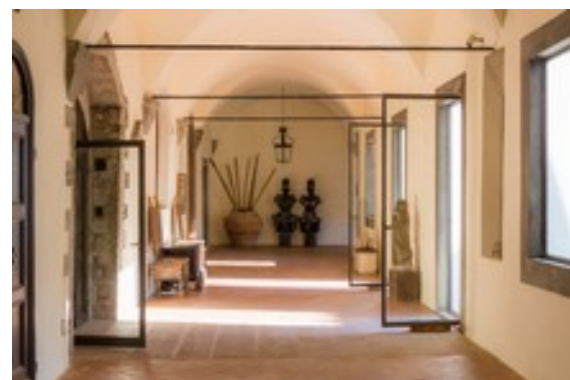

Since then, the abbey has been a reference point for travelers and pilgrims in the Chianti region, as well as an important site for worship, agricultural practices, and winemaking.

In the first half of the 19th century, the abbey was transformed into a private villa. From the early 1900s, the journey began that led Badia a Coltibuono to become one of the most emblematic wineries in the Chianti Classico region.
