

Chillable Red Wine For Summertime

Chill Ya Jolo, 2024

Chill Ya Jolo is a new from Badia a Coltibuono, one of Tuscany's most iconic estates. It's made with Ciliegiole, an indigenous Tuscan grape variety that is an essential component in Chianti Classico. However, you rarely find it bottled on its own.

In a fun twist, the name of the wine, Chill Ya Jolo, is also the phonetic spelling of the grape. In addition, it hints to serving instructions. Chill. This is such a fun wine, full of bright red fruit like cherry.

It was still fresh two days later when I realized there was some left in the bottle. I had it with grilled fish and also some charcuterie. $19
